

HIGH SCHOOL ORIENTEERING

Grace Christian School finished at the top in the annual orienteering race for high school cross-country runners on the Hillside trails. The Grace runners finished only 3 points ahead of Colony. The course had 24 controls with a total of 840 points. Although the orienteering was easy, the course required hard running. To get high scores the runners had to locate as many controls as possible while planning their route and managing their time.

RUNNER'S SCORE-O

Steve Gruhn scored 630 out of 840 points possible on an easy but fast orienteering course on the Hillside trails Tuesday August 14. The competitors had one hour to pick as many controls as possible, with penalties for finishing late. Shelly James was fastest woman, while Alaska Gold 2002 skiers, Southam and Quinn-Hurst, scored highest as a team.
