

Mountain Orienteering July 9th, 2005

Jolliff and Moore endure heat and challenging courses to win the mountain orienteering at Arctic valley on Saturday.

The Arctic Valley terrain made for demanding running for the 38 participants in the Mountain Orienteering race from the Alpenglow Ski Area and temperatures in the mid-70's made the courses extra challenging. Ian Moore won the grueling, 14.3 mile long blue course in 5:54:50, while Jen Jolliff won the 8.3 mile long red course in 4:36:40.

Blue course, 14.3 miles:

1. Ian Moore 5:54:50, 2. Kimball Forrest 9:42:50, 3. John Weddleton and Rick Suddock 10:45:00.

Red course, 8.3 miles:

1. Jen Jolliff 4:36:40, 2. Seth Downs 4:38:05, 3. Eric Follett 4:43:40, 4. Mike Wayt 5:04:30, 5. Paul Carson 5:16:50, 6. Philip Stutzer and Toni Fuerer 5:28:10, 7. Dan Ellsworth 5:29:10, 8. Dick Hawkins 6:38:50, 9. Sherry Timmerman 6:57:50, 10. Brian Durrell, Larry Meyers and John Letourneau 7:02:00, 11. Andrew Lee 7:31:00, 12. Doug Poage 7:46:00, 13. John Drozdowski 8:45:10, 14. Dave Scherer 10:02:00.

White course, 5.8 miles

1. Ted Moore 2:58:45, 2. Julie and Stephanie 3:39:30, 3. Luke, Gretchen, Max and Bo Kiskaddon 4:18:34, Bill Gookin 4:31:30, 5. David Snyder 4:32:50, 6. Ginny Moore 5:00:50, 7. Todd Shipley 5:04:10, 8. Jim Cheney 6:52:45, 9. Ann Bruner and Julie Osgood 7:15:40.