

Kincaid Billygoat Bluff
8/23/2006
Kincaid Park

Approximately 85 people took advantage of Wednesday's lull in the August rain to compete in the Billygoat Bluff orienteering event at Kincaid. A billygoat race in a mass-start orienteering event where participants must find the controls in order. Unlike standard orienteering events, following is permitted and encouraged. In Wednesday's long course competition, Cory Smith's honesty let Bill Spencer finish first, when Cory spent extra time at a control that had been stolen before the race.
