

Easter Orienteering Slush Cup

Saturday, April 7, 2007, at Storck Park/Section 36

Cory Smith battled slushy snow and 70 mph winds to win the long course of Saturday's orienteering competition in Bear Valley. Competitors were free to choose their footwear, but from results it is unclear if it was better to wear skis or snowshoes or to go without. Ted Moore won the Short Course and the team of Chris Zafren, Rachael Zafren and Alex Susich won the White Course.

Long course (90 minutes time limit, 20 possible controls)

1) Cory Smith, 16 pts (Skis, 18 controls, 2 minutes late); 2) Eric Follett, 15 pts (On foot, 15 controls, on time); 3) Ellyn Brown, 14 pts (Snowshoes, 14 controls, on time); 4) Dan Billman, 1 pts (Snowshoes, 14 controls, 1 min. late); 5) Andrew Lee, 11 pts (Skis, 15 controls, 4 min. late); 6) Bill Spencer, 11 pts (Skis, 17 controls, 6 min. late); 7) Kimball Forrest, 6 pts (Snowshoes, 13 controls, 7 min. late)

Short course (60 minutes time limit, 20 possible controls)

1) Ted Moore, 10 pts (Snowshoes, 10 controls, on time); 2) Anne Billman, 5 pts (Snowshoes, 5 controls, on time); 3) Maete and Charles Machado, 5 pts (On foot, 6 controls, 1 min late); 4) Ginny Moore, -1 pts (Snowshoes, 6 controls, 7 minutes late); 5) Leslie Kroloff, -1 pts (Snowshoes, 8 controls, 9 minutes late); 6) Lana Davis, John Kim and Sue Sears, -15 pts (On foot, 6 controls, 21 min. late)

White course (6 controls, 1.3 km)

1) Chris Zafren, Rachael Zafren and Alex Susich, 35:25; 2) Joe Gamache, Connor Gamache and Gavin Struempfer, 42:00; 3) Gary Eller, James Barber, Anthony Rodriguez and Matthew Ross, 43:05; 4) Dee Ginter and Jack Ginter, 46:54; 5) Liz Shen, Carly Dennis and Miles Dennis, 47:25; 6) Philip King, Peter King, Andrew Eller and Matthew Eller, 57:56; 7) Allan Shayer, Eli Shayer, John Scott and Becky Ross, 1:18:00; 8) John and Ry Weddleton, 1:30:36