

Profuse Spruce Abuse - Orienteering at Storck Park

Wednesday, June 10, 2009

Storck Park

The ninety-five orienteers participating in Wednesday night's meet at Storck Park were treated to lots of sunshine, warmth, and wildflowers. On the other hand, they were also subjected to mud, mosquitos, moose, and lots of spruce deadfall. Everyone survived, and a few people even claimed to have fun. Ian Moore won his fourth straight race on the Red Course, ahead of Kimball Forrest and Bill Spencer, while Ellyn Brown was the top woman. Ellyn finished just behind the top three men. Karl Swanson was the winner on a very popular Green course.

Thanks to Linda Smith, Marty and Ellen Blumberg, and Eeva Latosou for helping with this meet.
