

Karen and Tom's Scrabble-O

Wednesday, July 8, 2009

Mosely Field House, APU

Nearly 100 orienteers braved the record setting heat, bees and mosquitos at APU trails to search for controls with Scrabble letters. Bonus points were given for each letter participants could use in a crossword type puzzle. Andrew Lee won not only the men's category, but wowed us all by using 18 letters in his puzzle. Steve Gruhn followed closely and has the distinction of creating the longest word of the night, Podiatry. Lorena Knapp handily won the woman's field, using 14 scrabble letters. The team competition was dominated by Meg Cronin and Joyce Goodall, with an amazing 610 point score.

Thanks to Sue Kikukawa, Dwight Iverson, and Chris Tomsen for their help at this event.
