

David and Gary's Weird-O Orienteering Meet 7/29/09

Wednesday, July 29, 2009 at Goose Lake

Orienteers had to lower controls on pulleys, search for hidden punches, and use boats to get controls in the Arctic Orienteering Club's Weird-O Wednesday night at Goose Lake. Eric Follett cruised to victory in the 2.2 km short course while Andrew Lee led Urban Enkvist to win the 6.7 km long course. Bees stung many participants, and Steve Gruhn won that division, with over 10 stings.
