

Jaime's Psycho-O Night Orienteering

October 7th, 2009

7:30pm, APU Moseley Sports Center

32 people enjoyed dark and wet conditions for the Arctic Orienteering Club's final event for the 2009 season, the Alaska Pacific University Night-O. The course consisted of a 1 hour event where participants were to locate as many control check-points as possible while answering scary movie trivia at selected controls for bonus points.

Tobias Schworer narrowly edged out Bill Spencer to win the men's division collecting 23 out of 30 possible controls for a score of 752. Karen Bronga handily won the women's division collecting 15 of 30 controls for a score of 463. Amy, Matt & Tamra Medlock fended off stiff competition to win the Team division with a score of 420.
